

We are committed to excellence in the frontiers of science, technology and scholarship.

The Office of Research at The Ohio State University is committed to excellence in the frontiers of science, technology and scholarship. In advancing that mission, we provide strategic direction, identify priorities and prepare the next generation of researchers.

In pursuit of these efforts we are:

- The unified voice of research for Ohio State
- A resource to facilitate and enhance the work of a diverse body of faculty, staff and student researchers
- A champion of interdisciplinary as well as disciplinary research activity and infrastructure
- The catalyst for strategic research partnerships with regional, national and global entities to define and address the world's pressing challenges
- Advocates who create, capture and maximize resources for research funding and stewardship
- Leaders in the ethical conduct of research and instruction in research compliance
- A framework for streamlining research processes to reduce administrative burdens
- A promoter of the professional development and well-being of our staff

In the Office of Research, we value:

Excellence, Innovation, Collaboration, Diversity, Integrity and Engagement
