

Proposal Development Office

Our Process for Planning and Development: Positioning for Success

We support the university research community in the identification, analysis, planning and development of strategic, multidisciplinary funding opportunities.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

We provide three main phases of support:

- positioning
- capture planning
- proposal preparation

We Can Help

- Profile sponsors
- Track opportunity development
- Assess Ohio State capabilities
- Assess potential competitors
- Facilitate strategy development
- Analyze federal solicitations
- Develop proposal guidance tools, such as schedules and outlines
- Write non-technical proposal text
- Coordinate requests for information
- Review documents for compliance, responsiveness and readability
- Plan, organize, and lead Pink and Red Team reviews and facilitate feedback response
- Conduct training on capture and proposal development tools and techniques

For More Information Contact:

Proposal Development Office
Office of Research

Ruth Ann Hendrickson, PhD
Associate Vice President and Director

614-292-8190
hendrickson.1@osu.edu
research.osu.edu